Encl.- to C. L. No.48

SCHOOL SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION AND STUDY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

The Acting Principal, the Special Teachers of English and the Continuation Teachers, in a meeting held on September 8th, 1922, unanimously decided to organize a society among the students of the 8th, 9th and 10th grades, to create in our youth a spirit of loyalty and true love for our flag and all American institutions, to lead them to think, to feel and to act as grown up American citizens, and to study and to practice the English language, our national language.

PURPOSES AS TO THE LANGUAGE IS CONCERN:

(1) To better and to increase the pupils' spoken and written English.
(2) To motivate English compositions by means of literary contests.
(3) To hold interesting debates on themes of real educational value.
(4) To create in them the habit of reading the gems of our national literature.
(5) To create a real desire to speak English freely and fluently everywhere, among themselves.

ORGANIZATION:

The society will be under the immediate control of a body of advisers composed of the Acting Principal, the special teachers of English and the continuation teachers.

The Acting Principal will act as a chairman at all the meetings of the board of advisers.

During the meetings of the society the members of the board of advisers will serve as advisers.

A committee will be formed composed of five members elected by the board of advisers among those pupils best prepared in English.

A regular meeting will be held every week.

DUTIES OF THE MEMBERS:

(1) To think, feel and act as grown-up American citizens.
(2) To lead small school fellows to act accordingly.
(3) To wear a small American flag in the buttonhole.
(4) To attend all meetings of the society with punctuality and regularity.
(5) To write and speak correct English.
(6) To increase the vocabulary with some new words every day.

(7) To maintain correspondence in English with Continental school children and to submit to the Society the answers received.
(8) To maintain during the meeting hour the best deportment.
(9) To read good English an hour daily.
(10) To subscribe to some literary magazine printed in English.
(11) To speak English everywhere to one another.

THE SOCIETY.
